In 1776, Americans fought voraciously for independence from a hostile foreign invading and occupying force. No compromise can be reached. In 2020, Americans are being invaded and occupied by a hostile domestic force and not lifting a finger. No compromise can be reached, but no fight. What changed?

In 1865 the nation was split with slaves states versus free states. No compromise could be reached. So Americans fought voraciously over slavery with the winner abolishing slavery. In 2020 the nation is split with supporters of President Trump versus opponents of President Trump. No compromise can be reached. So Americans took to the streets in protests that led to riots and looting along with domestic combatants taking over private property in major cities without meeting any resistance from the police or the authorities. Again no compromise can be reached. So Americans let domestic enemies bring chaos into our society with a plan to change America into a socialist country against zero resistance, no fight. What changed? Where is the America we once knew, the home of the brave and the land of the free? Why aren't we standing up to the domestic enemy within?
